

THE CHRONICLE-JOURNAL/BRENT LINTON

A grand opening

Danielle Shaver Currie, Circle of Friends co-ordinator, toasts with Frances Cheetham who was recognized for her volunteer work with Hospice Northwest during Thursday's grand opening of the hospice's new site at St. Joseph's Heritage. Hospice Northwest is a volunteer community-based charity that provides compassionate support to people living with life-threatening illnesses.