

THE CHRONICLE JOURNAL/SANDI KRASOWSKI

Gathering hope

Natalie Costa 9, holds a candle that is lit by her mom as they take part in Tuesday evening's Hospice Northwest Candlelight Memorial Service. The vigil was conducted by Rev. Deborah Kraft from St. Paul's United Church with music by Andy Poppalardo. The non-denominational service was intended to help people reflect on their losses and restore a sense of hope for the holiday season.